Sir, let's turn now to the Rogers Funds were going to be executing a trade, we looked at it and 5 5 accounts at RCM. The Rogers Funds opened a number of said, fine, we'll be happy to try to make this 6 accounts with Refco Capital Markets in September 2005, 6 transition -- transition until such time as I'm no 7 7 longer the general partner, which could have been any correct? 8 A Correct. 8 given day. We will get those accounts opened over here 9 9 Q How many accounts in total did RCM -- Strike the for you in case you need to put a trade on. 10 10 In fact, there was a delay of one month as I 11 How many accounts in total did the Rogers Funds 11 12 open at RCM? 12 Q A delay -- What's the delay you're referring to? 13 A My guess would have been two, possibly three. 13 Between the time you attempted to open the account and 14 14 Q When you say two, possibly three, do you mean the time it opened or what? 15 for each fund? 15 A I was trying to think if that had even anything 16 A Yes. to do with the standstill, and I don't think it did. I 16 17 Q Can you explain to me the purpose for opening 17 think it was just the paperwork and people trying to get these multiple accounts at RCM? their ducks in line. 18 18 19 19 A Sure. At this point in time it was pretty clear Diepason really was going to do the roll a 20 that the business was being moved to Diepason to execute 20 month earlier, and they weren't prepared to do it, or we 21 for Refco. It had been made very clear. And in trying 21 weren't prepared to allow them to do it, and we did it 22 to be facilitory, being the general partner, I knew that 22 23 sometimes Diepason used FX. 23 Q At the time that the Rogers Funds' FX accounts 24 So they -- Refco asked me to -- if I wouldn't 24 were opened at RCM, had any contracts or agreements been
